

Spelling List #5

Focus: plural nouns

1. Rattlers - Rattlesnakes warn people to stay away by shaking their rattlers.
2. Fangs - Dracula bit his victims using his fangs.
3. Countries - Three countries make up North Americans.
4. Liberties - The Constitution protects the liberties of Americans.
5. Potatoes - Ireland is famous for growing potatoes.
6. Rodeos - Cowboys and cowgirls ride bucking broncos at rodeos across the world.
7. Taxes - Americans threw the Boston Tea Party when they were outraged about taxes.
8. Reptiles - Snakes, alligators, and chameleons are all reptiles.
9. Surroundings - Be aware of your surroundings.
10. Beliefs - People in other countries hold different beliefs than Americans.
11. Difficulties - I had difficulties when trying to bathe my kitten.
12. Batches - Make two batches of cookies so we'll each get to try one.
13. Abilities - Everyone has their own special abilities.
14. Lashes - Some people wear fake lashes as part of their costumes.
15. Identities - People create their own identities.
16. Losses - The Seahawks have very few losses so far this year.
17. Possibilities - What should I be for Halloween? There are so many possibilities!
18. Notches - You can make notches in a tree to count the passing days.
19. Zeroes - You should not have any zeroes on your report card.
20. Eddies - Eddies are small whirlpools in the water.

Bonus Words:

1. Mangoes - Mangoes are the world's most popular fruit.
2. Sinews - Some Native Americans used sinews from animals to make goods like
Clothing and weapons.